To

The Exporters of Sugar (raw, white and refined sugar).

Subject: Regulation regarding export of raw, white and refined sugar under OGL in the current sugar season 2021-22 (Oct-Sept).

Madam/Sir,

Please refer to the Directorate General, Foreign Trade, Ministry of Commerce Notification No. 10/2015-20 dated 24.05.2022 regarding amendment in the export policy of Government of India in respect of sugar and Directorate of Sugar's letters of even number dated 24.05.2022 vide which Directorate issued guidelines/procedure for applying/obtaining Export Release Order (ERO) by sugar mills and exporters from this Department.

2. Para 5(vi) of guidelines issued by DFPD vide letter dated 24.05.2022 (letter issued to exporters) and further clarifications issued vide letter dated 31.05.2022, have been further reviewed and Para 5(vi) of letter dated 24.05.2022 (letter issued to exporters), may be read as under:-

“The sugar mills/refinery which exports refined sugar by way of value addition to raw sugar/low quality white sugar obtained as input from the domestic sugar manufacturer through OGL shall be considered to have exported domestically manufactured sugar. In this regard, the raw/white sugar manufacturer, and the sugar refinery for that purpose shall enter into bi-partite/tripartite agreement. However, if sugar is procured under Advance Authorisation Scheme (AAS), permission of Directorate of Sugar may not be required for re-exporting the refined sugar.”

Yours faithfully,

(Sangeet)

Director (Sugar)
